

Please reconsider your position to disallow XM radio from offering traffic and weather information....or anything else for that matter.
I pay for the service and do not see why it should be banned. If anything, the competition will make the existing sources do a better job.